Coloring Page Facts

On the next page is a coloring sheet from the cover of Votes for Women magazine after women won the right to vote in Washington.

Who are these people, and why are there so many babies?!

Washington was the 5th state to grant women the vote. Each baby represents one of those states. The man is Uncle Sam, who represents America. He is giving the Washington "baby" to suffragists.

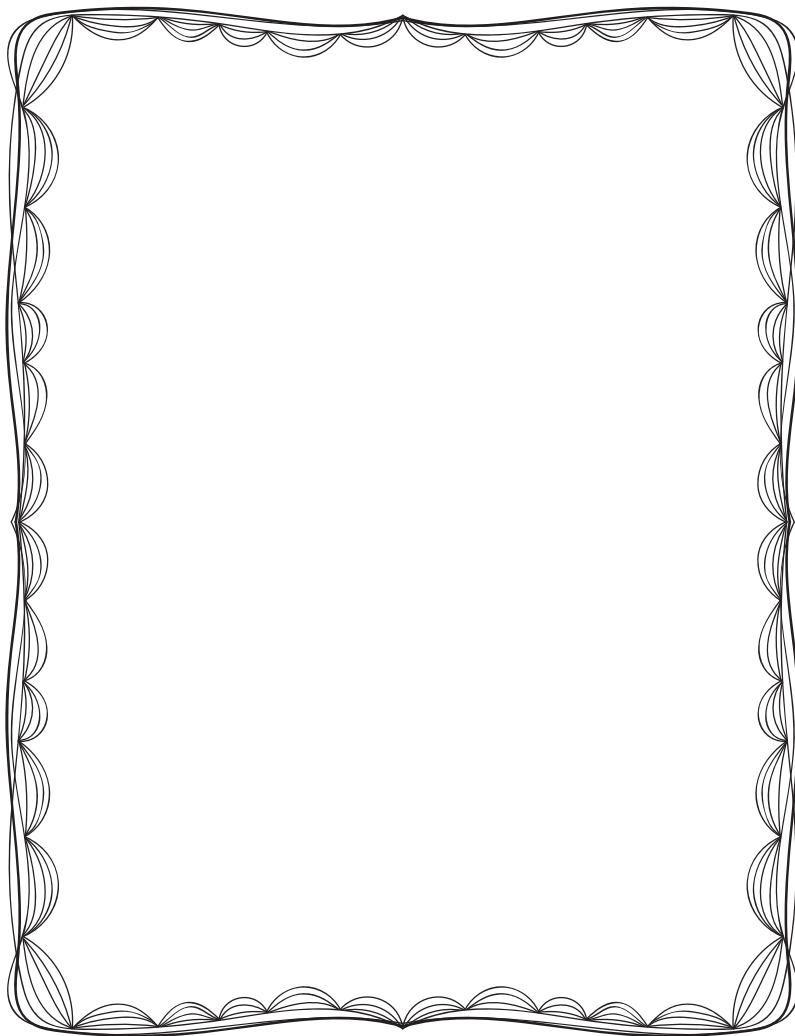

The three women were important suffragists. In the front is Katherine Smith, President of the Alki Club. The women behind her are May Arkwright Hutton, a suffrage leader from Spokane, and Katherine Duer Mackay, a suffragist from the east coast that came to help Washington women campaign.

Make a Banner

Cut out this shape and wrap the tabs around a pencil to make a banner that you can carry with you.

One way suffragists communicated their message was through banners.

What message do you care about that you want to tell people? What do you think should change?

Use the outline to make your own banner!
